ORDER

This matter is before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion for Leave to File Under Seal the Memorandum in Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Exclude the Testimony of Dr. James A. Storer, along with its attached Exhibit 1 [Dkt. # 357]. The public has been given advance notice of the parties' request to seal these materials, and the Motion was docketed well in advance of this Court's decision on the Motion. See In re Knight Publishing Co., 743 F.2d 231 (4th Cir. 1984). No objection has been lodged on the docket to maintaining these documents under seal. Accordingly, the issues raised in this Motion are now ripe for disposition. For good cause shown, the Motion is ALLOWED.

Because the documents sought to be sealed do not relate to a dispositive motion, they are subject to a common law right of access by the public. See Stone v. Univ. of Md. Med. Sys. Corp., 855 F.2d 178 (4th Cir. 1988). This common law right of access may only be overcome by demonstrating that "countervailing interests heavily outweigh the public interest in access."

Virginia Dep't of State Police v. Washington Post, 386 F.3d 567, 575 (4th Cir. 2004) (quoting Rushford v. New Yorker Magazine, Inc., 846 F.2d 249, 253 (4th Cir. 1988)).

The materials sought to be sealed include confidential and competitively sensitive business information. The Court finds the justification behind sealing this information heavily outweighs the public interest in access, particularly in light of no objection from the public, the fact that the public has not already had access to the information contained in the records, and disclosure of the documents would not enhance the public's understanding of an important historical event.

SO ORDERED, this 29th day of _____ May, 2015.
